KAZAKHSTAN INVESTMENT BUREAU

The Kazakh business delegation will focus on meetings with government and business representatives to discuss investment and trade opportunities in Kazakhstan. The delegation will meet with officials of the Kazakhstan Investment Agency, the National Association of Entrepreneurs of Kazakhstan and the Ministry of Trade and Integration to discuss Kazakhstan's investment potential in a number of areas. In addition, the delegation will take part in the large Kazakhstan Round table on Global Investments (KGIR-2024), which will include thematic discussions between government ministers and major international investors. The delegation will also visit the Astana International Financial Center (AIFC) and meet with representatives of the Ministry of Digital Development, Innovation and Aerospace Industry. In Almaty, the delegation will hold B2B meetings with local companies to discuss investment opportunities and cooperation in infrastructure, technology and business. A visit to the Almaty region and Zhetysu is also planned, including familiarization with the International Center for Cross-Border Cooperation "Khorgos", a Dry port and large logistics hubs on the border with China.

About Atameken and the International Chamber of Commerce:

The National Association of Entrepreneurs of Kazakhstan (Atameken) represents the interests of entrepreneurs throughout the country and supports small and medium-sized enterprises, contributing to the improvement of the business environment. The International Chamber of Commerce of Kazakhstan focuses on promoting international trade and investment, helping local companies integrate with the global market.

For the foreign delegation, this visit will help to better understand the business environment of Kazakhstan and the model of functioning of the local market, as well as pave the way for future trade and investment cooperation.

About the Kazakhstan Investment Management:
The Kazakhstan Investment Management is the national investment promotion agency of Kazakhstan, which is specifically responsible for attracting foreign investment and providing comprehensive support to investors. For the foreign delegation, this meeting will demonstrate Kazakhstan's investment opportunities in many strategic areas such as energy, minerals, infrastructure and agriculture, and will become an important platform for cooperation between companies of the two countries.

The Kazakhstan Global Investment Round Table (KGIR-2024) is a special economic zone of Kazakhstan, the purpose of which is to promote industrial development by providing investors with favorable conditions, including tax incentives and simplified administrative procedures..
